having to look after a disabled person is dependant on the level of disability. this should also include the aged and more support for those charity venues that aare supporting the disabled and aged.

My partner is self employed, we have a disabled son, we receive dla and because our tax credits went up due to receiving dla, we lost most of our council tax support and have to pay almost all our council tax, when in fact my partners earning are much lower than the income floor that stand now but due to dla it takes it over the threshold. So because my son is disabled we have to pay triple the amount of council tax than what we were before.

It seems fair to base support on actual income rather than 'supposed' income. I don't think it will affect me as I'm not disabled and my benefit is based on me being on Universal Credit at present; but it's good to know you might help the most disadvantaged with realistic assessments.

In the middle of a cost of living crisis we are now expected to also accept cuts to support for the most vulnerable. There is already enormous pressure on my family and the last thing we need is to have to pay more out because of cuts in the amount of support we receive. Its just wrong and badly timed.

11/01/2022 10:01 PM

Anonymous

This does not affect me. I'm a single mom with 2 children in school and a victim of domestic violence. My bill has actually gone up. I can't afford it. Its a choice between buying food ( also high) paying energy bills to stay warm ( also high) so that we could live everyday. There is no provision for someone like me in this proposed change. Its already hard on parents as we have to work around school hours which excludes us from work that will get us off this benefit. No provision made for that. After school clubs costs, breakfast clubs costs.... there is no consideration of the family and children on this.

Anonymous

The actual financial costs of managing and living with a Disability at this time are extremely difficult. The cost of living has increased exponentially. Removing the minimum income for disabled, self employed residents will just create further anger. Croydon Council seem to be hell bent on doing this anyway. This survey is just Bantha Fodder.

This seems fair

Anonymous

11/25/2022 08:21 PM

Anonymous

i wonder if you have considered in your calculation methodology that

11/26/2022 07:07 AM

there are many older residents who refuse to ask the state for financial support, they may be on their own in a large home that they dont feel able to sell since the death of a loved one (memories are all that they have left) and cannot afford the high rate of council tax. what about them?

Anonymous

11/27/2022 04:37 PM

I am neither the main taxpayer nor have a disabled partner. Removal of minimum income has no impact on me as I am not working.

Anonymous

11/29/2022 08:28 AM

As someone who is Disabled and in receipt of Employment and Support Allowance (ESA), but self-employed, under Permitted Work Rules, I have been negatively impacted by the scheme introduced in April 2022. I cannot understand how an Equality Impact Assessment did not point out the impact on self-employed disabled people. I am left wondering how, if the proposed change is made, people will prove their income level. Will it be necessary to complete another form, provide tax returns or something else? Would this not add further bureaucracy? Would it not be simpler and fairer to say anyone in receipt of ESA is automatically assumed not to be earning and therefore provide full support as was the case under the pre-April 2022 scheme? If someone were disabled and not self-employed would ESA still be counted towards their income? The figure given seems incorrect, is the Minimum Income Floor not set at £332.50 with a £50.00 discount for those in receipt of certain benefits – including ESA – making a total assumed income of £282.50 not the figure given above?

Anonymous

11/29/2022 12:16 PM

the adults that can pay within the household okay could pay towards council tax, but those that are not able to, such disabled. Those on a very low income, can only pay what they can reasonable afford without leaving them without a household oncome to use.

Anonymous

11/29/2022 05:52 PM

I believe disabled people should not have to pay council tax at all

Anonymous

11/29/2022 10:32 PM

If it's a tiered support then I agree it should be wholly tiered. I would prefer that everyone gets a reasonable support regardless of income though, i.e. all eligible get the maximum

Anonymous

I am not to sure the effect this would have

Anonymous

10/21/2022 06:31 PM

This seems reasonable, given that the council needs to cut costs. But it would be fairer to increase it by the same percentage that council tax increases.

Anonymous

10/21/2022 06:48 PM

It is almost not worth it to work and be a contributor to the community as you are always left to fend for yourself. Council tax rates are extortionate in Croydon and who pays are always the same people

Anonymous

10/21/2022 06:55 PM

For someone like. Self who does not claim any benefits is struggling to pay for everything that has gone up.

Anonymous

10/21/2022 09:04 PM

The council Tax is already very high for example 2 bedroom house paying £1965.84 per year. It's very hard to pay that much amount.

Anonymous

10/22/2022 05:09 AM

It is only normal to increase the council tax to match cpi

Anonymous

10/23/2022 12:08 PM

It's not clear why you are considering this therefore shouldn't be considered.

Anonymous

10/23/2022 10:54 PM

This will probably mean more council tax increases. No thanks. If you need more money then TAX THE POLLUTING NOISY SPACE-CONSUMING CHILD-KILLING MOTORIST! THEY ARE ADDICTED TO THEIR CARS AND WILL PAY! That means more CPZs. Why is there STILL no parking controls in the areas surrounding Selhurst Park on match days?? Islington have done it for years with Arsenal games why not Croydon??

Anonymous

Anonymous

I'm not really understanding this question either.

Anonymous

11/01/2022 06:27 PM

Yes, I think this is reasonable. The world financial crisis is not the fault of the Council and even though your change may mean less benefit, I appreciate you have limited budgets too and it seems fair to make the benefit proportional to the actual council tax. It's hard to know at this point how it will affect me. It seems I'll get less benefit but it seems fair.

Anonymous

As I said in my last answer, if the Council provided a semblance of any service in this God forsaken Borough then it probably would not be so bad. Since Veolia cannot even seem arsed enough now to collect residents' bins the whole thing is a total disgrace!!

Anonymous

Through no fault of the residents the council members and senior employed heads of service working in the council have let Croydon down and we are facing the third bankruptcy what a disgrace. all this change is merely to raise more taxes from us the residents so the money can be yet again wasted... or make up for other's mistakes. Croydon took their eye off the ball and employed staff clearly unfit to do the job and are hiding behind the Nolan Principles which are not new as being suggested strongly now - too late and where are the legal consequences who is being held to account.

Anonymous

11/27/2022 04:37 PM

I am a disabled resident and receive council tax support. Therefore, the quantity that the council tax annually grew has an impact on me.

Anonymous

11/29/2022 08:28 AM

If the income bands only increase with Council Tax %3, inflation is at %10 and someone's income goes up at %9, so less than inflation but more than Council Tax they will be placed in the next income band up – at least – and will have their Council Tax Reduction decreased. Given that in real terms they will have less money, due to inflation, it seems deeply unfair to increase their Council Tax liability. I would therefore suggest that banding should be based either on the CPI or the Living Wage. This would seem to be a fairer basis on which to calculate increases in the banding.

You already take a deduction for non dependants along the financial lines that are laid out - 5 for non working etc does this mean that non working spouses will have to pay extra and students over the age of 18 who are still at school why make this change when the non dependant deduction is already in existance? this proposal will only impact familys who are not paying the non dependant deduction and they are most likely the most deprived

It seems reasonable to do this, but the calculation seems unfair. Surely if ther are two adults and one is disabled then the reduction should in support should be 50% and if there are three adults one of whom is disabled then the reduction should be 66% if you are going to apply the principles you are referring to. But then again this seems a bit harsh. So perhaps you should revisit your principles if you aren't fully applying them.

Anonymous

11/01/2022 06:19 PM

This question I'm not understanding either.

Anonymous

11/01/2022 06:27 PM

This won't affect me personally as I'm a single occupier. But it seems fair that all adults in a household should contribute towards council tax, proportionally to their means. My only caution is that those means are properly and fairly assessed. The one thing that doesn't sound good is that the main taxpayer gets a £5 reduction in benefit even if the other adult is not working. This could be quite punitive as the non-working adult may not be in a position to contribute anything, struggling themselves to get by. I'd be against that' but certainly reasonable to apply a deduction when there are other working adults in the household.

Anonymous

11/01/2022 06:26 PM

Especially during the current climate, we need any support we can get, so by removing support only makes matters more stressful

Anonymous

I think if the non dependents are disabled not working or a full time 18- 23 uni/student then no i don't think it's easy for them to pay as we are all really struggling as it is . I think if non dependents are working then £5 if wages are low a week eg they are disabled or part time because of circumstances and £10 if wages are the 35 hours a week that you base it on . This will have a big impact on me as i have disabilities and don't work and have to care and be appointee for my autistic son and other disabilities who is 21 and can't work .can't interact with people etc my 18 year old daughter also has autism but with help is trying university but lives at home still because of her Autism with how expensive travelling to uni and every day costs and uni books she doesn't have much . We are a vulnerable household. I thought disabled not working are protected. Also if pip is something that has to count towards being disabled in council tax shouldn't care or mobility be just as important not just care component. Also not everyone that is disabled claims pip .

This does not affect me. I'm a single mom with 2 children in school and a victim of domestic violence. My bill has actually gone up. I can't afford it. Its a choice between buying food ( also high) paying energy bills to stay warm ( also high) so that we could live everyday. There is no provision for someone like me in this proposed change. Its already hard on parents as we have to work around school hours which excludes us from work that will get us off this benefit. No provision made for that. After school clubs costs, breakfast clubs costs.... there is no consideration of the family and children on this.

Reducing such CTS support to households of disabled residents will cause further hardship. Disabled residents such as myself rely on receiving full CTS support. It enables me to experience a weekly health support intervention. Having other adults in the house does not equate to more money for me.
