| CYP.2.23/24 | The Sub-Committee commended the inclusion of parents and carers in delivering prevention and intervention work in the Youth Justice Service (YJS) but recommended that there should be greater involvement of parents and carers in the development of the next Youth Justice Plan for 24/25. | Councillor Maria GatlandCYPE     | Already in Progress YJS promotes the completion of a parent self-assessment on all young people who enter Youth Justice system. Parents are invited to panels and reviews to ensure parental voices are heard and feed into developments in both practice and service development. YJS currently have a Parenting survey open to ascertain parental views on the Service (closing date mid-February). YJS will be hosting a 'Meet the Youth Justice Management Team' with parents in February 2024 to promote accessibility and also, to gauge views on the Service and parental feelings on Serious Youth Violence in the borough. This will be an evening event to promote participation and seek views on how we can improve engagement with parents and the community. Parent representative role to be created within the Youth Crime Board. | Róisín Madden,Director of Children's Social Care | Financial impact is met from current service budget. | Continuous Action February 2024 February 2024 June 2024 | TBC                                     |
